ELOQUENT PLEA MADE FOR REPUBLICAN VOTE (Continued From Page One) have a Republican Senate. Now Ore-go must do its duty. It can do its duty by going to the polls and electing on November 24 Bob Stanfield to the United States Senate. By dos- ing so you will be consulting your own interests and your own welfare. Against the present incumbent I have not a word to say. Or relations are most pleasant, and, if the matter were a matter of personality, there is no one that I would welcome more than be present incumbent. But the issue is not a matter of personality. It is a matter of policy. Your Chair- man has told you that the Republi- can party at the present time has a majority of two--he said possibly one. That is true, apparently, by count in the United States Senate; we have this majority of two--or rather the majority of one. But we have not a majority upon the propo- sition that the people of this commu- nity are more vitally interested in, and that is the question of a protec- tive tariff, because two Republican senators now in the United States Senate, both voted for the Under- wood Free Trade Tariff Law, put- ting your sheep and your wool and your meat upon a free trade basis. So it is necessary that we have more than the mere majority of two. The Republican party and Republican policies are not safe in the next Con- gress unless the Republican party has a majority of five or six or sev- en, and if Oregon should fall in its duty to send a Republican senator to uphold the hands of President Har- ding and we continue to suffer in the perpetuation of this Underwood Tar- iff Act, maybe some of you will have reason to think of these lines: "So the struck eagle stretched upon the plain; No more through rolling clouds to soar again, Viewed his own feathers on the fa- tal dart That winged the shaft that quivered in his heart. Keen were his pangs, but keener far to feel He nursed the pinion that impelled the steel." I hope the citizens and the electors of Oregon next November will not have occasion to feel those pangs, when they realize that the Republi- can party will be unable to write its own tariff law upon the statute books, unable to repeal the Underwood free wool, free trade tariff law that was passed by the Wilson Administration in 1913.

GO IT, GIRL! GO IT! YOU MUST WIN!

And Anita Stewart does not urge Bess in vain, for she wins by a nose in the great classic Ken tucky turf meet. A drama full of thrills Watch for it. It's coming to Dreamland next week.

MALHEUR EXHIBIT WAS SUPERIOR DISPLAY The Malheur County exhibit at the State Fair was a superior display of agricultural products of high qual- ity. More than our share of the hon- ors were captured and the county got much favorable advertising be- cause of the exhibit.

Vote X 57 Swagler for District Attorney

This is the most important County office to be filled at the coming election. Your District Attorney should be a lawyer of training and experience, possessing not only ability as a prosecutor, but who will carefully handle the legal affairs of the County in such a manner as will best serve your interests, consistent at all times with due economy.

I am asking to be re-elected as your District Attorney, solely upon my past record, with my pledge to exercise the same energy, fearlessness, conscientiousness, good judgment, reason and economy that I have endeavored to exercise in the past.

I have had practically seven years experience in the duties of the office and I am fully acquainted with all of its duties and responsibilities.

During my term of office I have convicted or secured a plea of guilty in fifty seven cases in the various justices and county courts with acquittals in but three cases. From these cases our County has secured approximately $8000.00 in fines and bonds forfeited.

Out of eighteen cases tried before a jury in the Circuit Court, there have been eleven convictions and seven acquittals, and during the last four terms of Circuit Court, Juries have brought in a verdict of guilty in every criminal case tried.

I have kept up the County Tax Foreclosure, and thereby added many thousands of dollars to the funds of the County.

Circuit Court expenses have been materially reduced by a careful consideration of the various cases submitted to me, and the exercise of sound judgment.

I invite a careful inspection of my record for I have nothing to conceal. If you do not know me personally ask your neighbor regarding my qualifications, fitness and training.

If you approve of my services and believe my re- election will best serve you as a tax payer of this County---
